- Fully-outfitted meeting and conference rooms
The most convenient airport in the northeast
Fly (exactly) when you want to
As a corporate aviation airport, a major advantage of flying from Wilmington (ILG) is that with three runways, delays are minimal. Private aviation flies on time.
• Air traffic control tower
• Change your flight plan at a moment’s notice
• Short taxi from hangars
• Avoid security delays and hassles

Close to major destinations
In the heart of the nation’s busy northeast corridor, Wilmington (ILG) puts you right where you need to be.
• At the intersection of Routes I-95 and I-295 for fast access to Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and Maryland
• 25 minutes to downtown Philadelphia
• 10 minutes to downtown Wilmington
• 1 hour to Baltimore
Everything your flight department needs is right here
Infinite hangar options

It’s easy to make ILG your home base. Use our existing hangars and amenities, or build to suit your own specifications.

- Lease space in our hangars
  - Longer, wider and higher to handle today’s larger jets
  - Fully-outfitted shop and maintenance space available
  - Convenient, comfortable, high-tech conference rooms, offices and lounges
- Let us build to your specifications and lease back
- Or build your own hangar; ample land is ready for development

Extensive support services on site

With runways that can handle the largest freight aircraft, and vast repair and maintenance capacity, Wilmington (ILG) is the one airport for all your requirements:

- Air freight
- Air charter
- Maintenance and repair
- Flight Safety International on site, with state-of-the-art flight simulators
- Four Fixed Base Operators
